CHICAGO TRANSIT

Date and Time: Saturday, October 26 7:30 pm

Address: FLATO Academy Theatre

There are a lot of bands doing a tribute to the band Chicago, but back in the early 90's, when Powerhouse decided to put together their Chicago Transit tribute act, they were the first in the world to do so. And they remain to day as the longest running Chicago tribute band and the only one to carry four lead vocalists, just as the band Chicago does.

CHICAGO TRANSIT CANADA | TRIBUTE TO CHICAGO

The band's 5 lead singers, the 3-piece horn section, and the 5 piece rhythm section made this show a natural for the band – even getting credit from the band Chicago themselves, back in the 90's.

In twenty-five years, the band, based in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada has performed their show at Festivals, Theatres, Casinos, and various other venues from as far east as the Gatineau Hills in Quebec, south to Florida, USA, and the US Midwest – including Chicago, Illinois, itself.

The band, with its 3 piece horn section, five piece rhythm section, and five lead vocalists is able to cover all the Chicago material from the early horn-dominant classics like 'Make Me Smile', '25 or 6 to 4' and 'Saturday in the Park' to the later, softer, keyboard-oriented ballads like 'If You Leave Me Now'.

The Bowie Lives is excited to continue their run of theatres in 2024. With the addition of new songs and costumes, this "Bowie Spectacular" continues to excite audiences whenever they play.

This email from an audience member best sums it up... "Saw the show last night in Midland and was blown away. Was a little apprehensive at first as I have been a Bowie fan since I was a teen and I was concerned the band may not do the songs justice. I was overwhelmingly thrilled at what I heard and saw, from the first note I was hooked. The biggest takeaway is you can tell the lead singer is truly a devoted fan himself. Loved the way you honoured David Bowie. Hope to see you in Collingwood"
